

HYPOCRISY

Contributed by: Brandon Lloyd

Don't do this; don't do that yet you would do it yourself.

Don't take that Though you would not put it back on the shelf.

Quit lying to me
but if you were in the situation you would too.

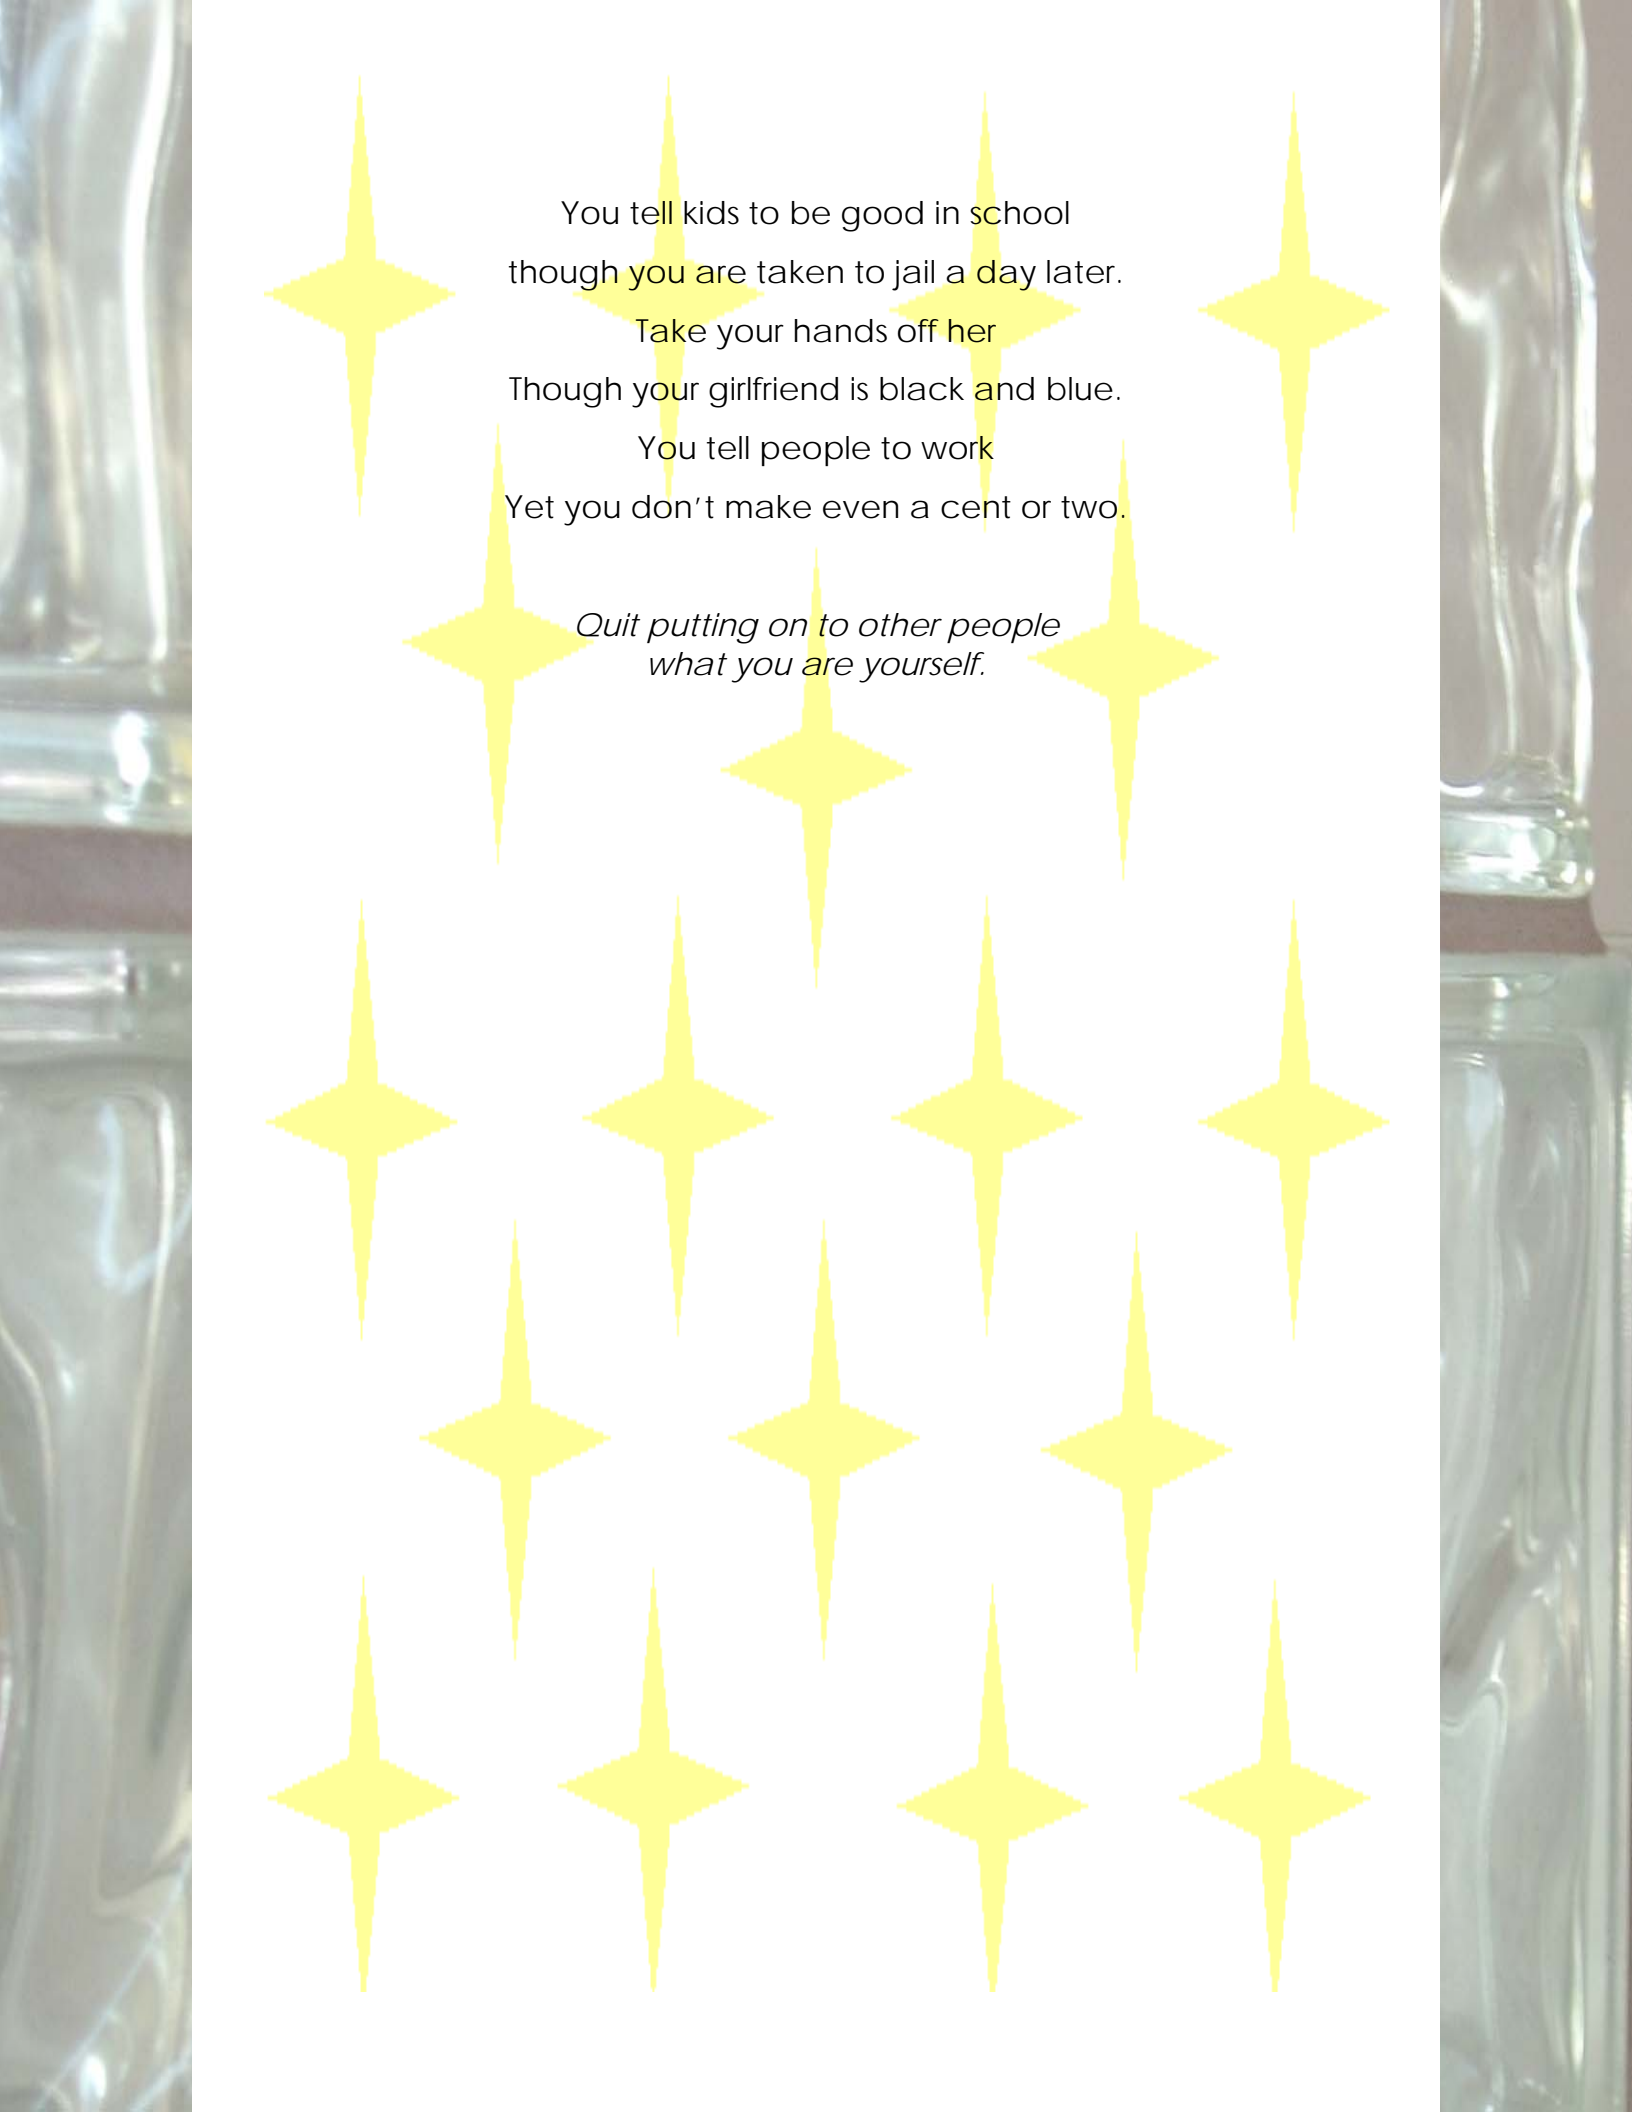

You tell people not to eat meat
although your favorite food is beef stew.

Stop eating so much though you do not push a plate away.
You tell people to save some money for later
yet you would spend all yours today.

You preach be true to yourself
though you are second best in your own book.

You say to stay loyal but you had to take a second look.

Stop cussing
although you cuss like a sailor.

You tell kids to be good in school
though you are taken to jail a day later.

Take your hands off her
Though your girlfriend is black and blue.

You tell people to work
Yet you don't make even a cent or two.

*Quit putting on to other people
what you are yourself.*
